The note which you just placed in my hands has been received. In repl., I have to state that in your interview with me this morning, when you proposed to celi-er a communication from Col. Webb, of the New York Courier and Enquirer, I declined fo receive it, because I chose to be drawn into no controversy with him. I neither affirmed or denied any thing is of that date is inexplicit, unsatisfactory and insufficient; among other things in this; that, in your declining to receive Col. Webb's communication, it does not disclaim any exception to him personally as a gentleman. I have, there-fore, to inquire whether you declined to receive his communication, on the ground of any personal ex-ception to him as a gentleman or man of honour? A categorical answer is expected.

Mr. Caley to Mr. Graves.

Sir: Your note of this date has just been placed in my hands. I regret that mine of yesterday was not setistactory to you, but I cannot admit the right on your part to propound the question to which you ask a categorical answer, and therefore decline any further response to it.
